

This document was photographed at Huntingdon Archive 19th June 2023

An account or inventory of all the books vessels and vestments belonging to the parish Church of Keyston within the archdeaconry of Huntingdon.

One Bible, Two common prayer books, Five registers, One pewter Basin, One pewter Flagon, one Silver Chalice with a cover to it, two pewter plates, One surplice and green cloth for the communion table, One green cloth of linen for the same, Two napkins and a cushion for the pulpit.

Five bells and a clock.

This is a true account or inventory of all the books vessels and vestments belonging to the parish Church of Keyston within the Archdeaconry of Huntingdon.

Witness our hands

William Hardy Curate

William Cannell Churchwarden

Keyston May 15th 1771

This inventory was presented to me at a parochial visitation

May 15th 1771

Nic: Cholwell Archdeacon

